WHEREAS, the Public Safety and Justice Affairs Committee has been investigating the financial transactions of the Clerk of Courts and the County relating to a contract with Sadler-NeCamp Financial Services, Inc., d.b.a. PROWARE, (“PROWARE”); and

WHEREAS, the Committee has sought information and documents from Judge Nancy Fuerst and Administrator Gregory Popovich of the Cuyahoga County Court of Common Pleas to assist the Committee in its investigation; and

WHEREAS, Judge Fuerst and Mr. Popovich have failed to cooperate with the Committee by failing to produce a list of documents to which Ms. Fuerst does not want to have the Clerk of Courts to have access through the PROWARE System (hereinafter the “requested list”); and

WHEREAS, Judge Fuerst and Mr. Popovich have led the Committee to believe that the requested list either exists or that drafts of it are in existence, but they have failed to produce the documents as requested; and

WHEREAS, Section 3.12 of the Cuyahoga County Charter provides:

The Council or any committee may investigate the financial transactions of any office, department or agency of County government and the official acts and conduct of any County official relating to any matter upon which Council is authorized to act. In conducting such investigations, the Council or any such committee may administer oaths and may, by resolution adopted by vote of at least eight members of Council or of the committee of Council, compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers and other evidence through the issuance of subpoenas. Subpoenas shall be signed by either the President of Council or the chair of the Council committee seeking a witness's testimony or the production of evidence and shall be served and executed by an officer authorized by law to serve subpoenas and other legal process. In the matter of compelling the attendance of witnesses and the production of evidence, the majority vote of Council, if any, shall take precedence over the vote of a Council committee. If any duly-subpoenaed witness refuses to testify to any facts within the witness's knowledge, or to produce any paper, books, or other evidence in the witness's possession or in the witness's control relating to the matter under inquiry before the Council or any such committee, the Council may refer the matter to the Prosecuting Attorney for the Prosecuting Attorney to cause the witness to be punished as for contempt.
